

AcmeFlow Data Export Policy

AcmeFlow customer support reference

A workspace owner can request a copy of workspace data from Settings > Privacy > Export data. The request should identify the workspace and an authorized contact.

The export is prepared as a downloadable archive when processing is complete. Keep the download private and delete local copies when they are no longer needed.

The support assistant can explain this published process but cannot inspect an export request or confirm its completion without account access.