

AcmeFlow Data Deletion Policy

AcmeFlow customer support reference

A workspace owner can request deletion from Settings > Privacy > Delete workspace data. The request should come from an authorized contact and identify the workspace.

Deletion is a consequential action. AcmeFlow confirms the scope and retention requirements before processing an eligible request. Keep any required export before submitting the request.

The support assistant can explain this published process but cannot inspect a private deletion request or confirm that data has been deleted without account access.